Who are Advocates?
What is a Campaign?

Non-Disclosure - Not a Problem

Waheedah Shabazz-El
Positive Women’s Network-USA
Regional Organizing Director
Goals for Today’s Webinar:

1. Understand what advocacy is and why it is needed

2. Understand how organizing can build power and make change

3. Understand opportunities to be involved in advocacy at any place on spectrum of disclosure

4. Discuss real life case studies where advocacy resulted in actual change in people’s lives
What is Advocacy?

- Activities that lead to a selected goal.
- One of many possible strategies, or ways to approach a problem.
- Does not necessarily involve confrontation or conflict.
- A legitimate part of the public process
What do Advocates Do?

Individuals or groups that plead, promote or defend the cause of another; specifically before a committee, board, court, panel or at a hearing. Advocates work for the things that matter to their communities.
Also known as:

- Champions
- Fighters
- Supporters
- Crusaders
- Upholders
- Promoters
- Campaigners
- Backers
- Spokespersons
- Game Changers
Advocacy does not necessarily involve confrontation or conflict. There are a number of ways to use your voice.
Advocacy is the RESPONSIBILITY of everyone who lives in a democracy...

To engage policymakers, the media, and other citizens in well-structured discussions about issues that affect the public.

“OUR LIVES BEGIN TO END THE DAY WE BECOME SILENT ABOUT THINGS THAT MATTER.”
-MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.
What’s involved in Advocacy?

People most impacted

Education
Political Research
Community Outreach
Fundraising
Support
Has non-disclosure of your HIV status interfered with you exercising your ability to be a game changer?
Women can be powerful advocates anywhere on the spectrum of HIV disclosure.
Women can be powerful advocates anywhere on the spectrum of HIV disclosure.

- Privacy of your own home
Even without Disclosure your HIV Status

• You can still come out swinging! Join the fight!

• Research an issue
• Design a website
• Make a flier & email flier out
• Make calls to decision makers
• Participate on conference calls
• Educate yourselves on webinars
• Make a pot of coffee
• Call and text other women
• Brain power help strategize campaigns
• Table at events
• Help raise money
• Start a blog - anonymously
• Help with press work
• Let us use your copier
• Wear a button
• Write letters to the newspaper or online editor
• Host a meeting
• Support the women on the front line
In Advocacy there is a place for all of us.
HIV is Preventable – only in an “Ideal World”

When we take on the entire blame of contracting HIV—
we let our decision makers off the hook.
Why Campaign?
Why Organize?
Why Speak Out?

“Power concedes nothing without a demand” - Frederick Douglas
• When we campaign
• When we organize
• When we speak out

- It’s about changing SYSTEMS and INSTITUTIONS
- Making things better for everyone, not just one person,
- Change comes about by fixing broken systems.

Positive Women’s Network USA
Sisterhood · Solidarity · Action
www.pwn-usa.org
SOME ARE BORN WITH POWER....

Having a strategy for long-term, sustainable organizing gives us more chances to challenge power imbalances.

More chances to win campaigns!

Positive Women’s Network USA
Sisterhood · Solidarity · Action

www.pwn-usa.org
• Not just planning an action, but developing the capacity of your organization to win campaigns by developing the skills of its members.

  ❖ Webinars
  ❖ Create talking Points
  ❖ Work group
  ❖ Outreach materials
  ❖ In person trainings
  ❖ E-Blast
  ❖ National Summits
What is a Campaign?

• A working definition of campaign is an organized course of action to achieve a particular goal.

• What drives a campaign is your “Theory of Change”: If/Then

• Your “Theory of Change” describes your expected outcomes if you take a particular course of action.
Theory of Change Statement

If / Then ...

• IF we organize in our communities & surrounding counties around the same issue (stigma in a health setting)

• THEN over time we will generate the political strength and will necessary to overpower the opposition and marshal in strong applicable policies that (enforces HIV sensitivity trainings for ALL healthcare personal in our state), fit the realities of our lives.
Group Homework Assignment
Fill in the blanks- Things to consider when developing your theory of change:

1. What do we want to see changed?
2. Who has the _____ to create that change we want?
3. What _____ do we want to see come about?
4. What ______ do we have- that they want or need?
5. A problem is an identified area of ____________.
6. An issue is the collective ______________ to your identified problem.
7. PWN-USA supports the development of _____-based campaigns
Steps to building campaigns

• Identify a local problem that deeply matters to your group.

• Research how that problem links to people in other surrounding areas - research can take the form of searching the internet, talking to other leaders, interviewing other women living with HIV, creating surveys, follow the newspapers, radio and TV shows.

• Together your local & county allies strategize to find a goal (solution) that is appropriate to eliminate the problem.
Problem: Stigma & discrimination in healthcare settings

Solution: Eliminating stigma will bring about better health outcomes, increase HIV testing and promote good public health policies.

Ask: Require all healthcare workers to receive sensitivity training with direct input from those most impacted.

---

Many Messengers.

One Message.

Eliminating stigma in healthcare settings promotes good community health. When people with HIV are treated with dignity they are more likely to keep appointments & adhere to their doctors recommendations. That leads to better health outcomes.
Advocates engage & inspire as many people as possible, making it impossible for the decision-makers to ignore us.

First They ignore you, then they laugh at you, then they fight you, then you win.

Gandhiji
What’s required in order to Win

• Strong organizational belief of purpose.
• Built in values that support mentorship & leadership development.
• Researching your Issue to identify what fills the gaps.
• Develop ongoing relationships with intersectional groups with common threads who have a shared history of struggle. (ethnic groups, LGBTQ groups, repro rights, labor unions)
• Research about who holds the power, what institutions make decisions
• Use -the- Media (social media, internet, college radio)
• Keeping pressure on Decision Makers

Whether running a local, statewide, or national campaign, local organizing is integral to a campaign’s success
Advocacy is exciting work—Make it Fun!

Feeling the pleasure of fighting the good fight, and sometimes, the thrill of victory!
Advocating for what you believe in is crucial – if you don’t ask for it, people assume you don’t need it!

When life gives you lemons, take them. Free shit is cool.

Disclosure or non-disclosure – not a problem – Advocacy has a place for all of us

Advocacy Works!

Positive Women's Network USA
Sisterhood · Solidarity · Action
Let’s take a look at some local, state & federal campaigns which PWN-USA have supported, organized or influenced.
Women with a Vision:
Statewide Campaign to change archaic discriminatory laws

“Women With a Vision held a press conference with allied organizations at the New Orleans Federal Courthouse and a telephone press briefing this morning”
PWN-USA
National Day of Action to End Violence

1. Led by women living with HIV and those who love and support us

2. Calling for Trauma Informed Care

3. Intake assessments to include delving into past trauma

4. Refer and treat accordingly

Regions mobilized by ★ Holding attention getting local events
★ Collecting organizational endorsers
★ Conducting web–based presentations
★ Creating a social media toolkit
★ Hosting an online event,
★ Participating in flash blogs and Thunder Clap
End Women’s HIV-Related Health Disparities: Making HIV Prevention, Care and Treatment Work for Women

The 30 for 30 Campaign was founded by a diverse and far-reaching group of organizations from every region of the United States.

Following outcry from advocates and ongoing pressure from women-focused groups, including PWN-USA and the 30 for 30 Campaign, President Obama formed the Working Group on the Intersection of HIV/AIDS, Violence against Women and Girls, and Gender-Related Health Disparities.
PWN Colorado: Game Changing Advocacy

- De-Criminalization of HIV including writing statewide legislation to repeal all (3) of the criminal codes that target PLHIV.

- Moving on legislation around state ID ensuring it matches gender identity

- Call for GIPA at state health department

- Compassion Campaign to End Stigma—“If I were HIV + I’d still be me”
PWN-USA partners with the SERO-Project to announce the 2016 Ending HIV Criminalization - Training Academy. The Second national conference to support the repeal and modernization of laws criminalizing HIV non-disclosure, perceived or potential exposure and transmission, will be held in June 2016 in Huntsville, Alabama.
Advocacy: A Place for All of Us

Women can be powerful advocates anywhere on the spectrum of HIV disclosure.
Measuring your wins

Keep the pressure on decision makers even if they don’t budge at first.

*The number of members you retain and number of new members that join your struggle ... is a win!

* How people, organizations, and movements have been altered through our collective efforts.... is a win!

* How many lives have we changed -- is a win!

* How societal and political views have been shifted, as a result of our Advocacy.... is a win!

Eat Cake!
Here’s How

1. Identify Your Issue
2. Develop Your Story
3. Define Your Request
4. Get the Facts
5. Find Allies
6. Get to the Right Person
7. Choose Your Tactics
8. Create a Detailed Plan
9. Take Action
10. Keep It Going!

Positive Women’s Network USA
Sisterhood · Solidarity · Action

www.pwn-usa.org
“Power concedes nothing without a Demand.

It never did and it never will.

-Frederick Douglas-1857

“If There Is No Struggle, There Is No Progress”
“Half your rights haven’t been written yet because you have not been there to demand them.”

- John Horace Bell, ACT UP Philadelphia-2003
Thank you on behalf of myself and PWN-USA

Waheedah Shabazz-El
Positive Women’s Network-USA

wshabazz@pwn-usa.org
waheedah.work@gmail.com

Stay in touch: www.pwn-usa.org